SOFT SKILLS: COMMUNICATION

Learning Outcomes:

- Students will comprehend and practice basic cell phone safety rules.
- Students will be able to protect themselves and others while on mobile devices.

Materials:

- Tip Sheet

Activities:

1. Due to the nature of the fragmented high school environment, it is hard to find a spot in the curriculum in which all students would gain a detailed lesson in cell phone safety.
2. Therefore, for ease of all involved, a tip sheet was produced using information from a multitude of available sources. This tip sheet can be used in any course in which the teacher desires to educate on cell phone usage.
3. This tip sheet is designed to be either handed out, emailed or posted depending on the method preferred by the school.
